UC’S BEST ASSET IS ITS PEOPLE

A FRIENDLY, RELAXED AND SUPPORTIVE COMMUNITY

Beyond being just a place to eat, sleep and study, UC offers graduates opportunities to engage in a vibrant college experience.

Student well-being is important at UC. Pastoral care and academic support is available from our Dean of Students and Dean of Studies. UC does everything possible to meet students’ personal, academic and social needs.

Above all, the great thing about living at UC is that different year levels, undergraduates and graduates mix freely. Living at College is a time to meet new people from diverse backgrounds and disciplines, with whom you will learn and grow, establishing friendships that will last a lifetime.

At UC, the graduates have the opportunity to participate in all of the social and sporting events. This makes UC such an exciting and welcoming place.
We have formed strong friendships which have not only helped in the transition to a new city (or country) for many, but also forged valuable network connections that will help us throughout our professional careers.
UC SUPPORTS YOU EVERY STEP OF THE WAY

UC’s personalised approach to learning will help you get the most out of your graduate studies. Our Dean of Studies and Dean of Students are both available for advice and guidance whenever you need.

TUTORING AND MENTORING OPPORTUNITIES

As a graduate student, there is an opportunity for your involvement in tutoring undergraduates at UC in your specialised field of study. This paid employment opportunity is flexible and suited for students who find value in teaching, sharing knowledge and mentoring younger students.

ACADEMIC FACILITIES

The library and tutorial rooms are great places to study at UC. The library is open 24/7 to students and includes computers, scanners, printing facilities and free WiFi. The librarian is also available to purchase core textbooks for you to study while you are at UC - this is a great money saver!
ACADEMIC WORKSHOPS AND SEMINARS

You can take advantage of the practical workshops that UC organises each semester. Career orientated workshops and the Pathways Dinner are conducted to assist you to explore future career possibilities and to network with professionals in the same field.

Senior students at UC also enjoy talks and discussions with distinguished academic visitors at our Fireside Chats. Our academic visitors come from all over the world and bring with them experience and knowledge in their specialised areas.

SUNDAY STUDY, CHAT AND CHILL SESSIONS

Sunday Study Sessions are a centrepiece of the Senior Common Room's vibrant social and academic life.

Every second Sunday, graduate students and resident tutors meet in the Heritage Room to study in quiet company.

Studying together, our graduate students gain a sense of camaraderie and find inspiration to revise lectures, write essays and overcome procrastination together.

Our graduates reconvene in the Senior Common Room after dinner for a more relaxed evening of movies and socialising.
